THE SILVER DEMOCRATS!

Plan of Campaign Adopted at the Washington Conference.

AN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CHOSEN

This Committee Will Select a National Committee, and the Work of Organizing for the Democratic National Convention Will be Pashed in All States.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16 .- The silver Democrats continued their conference at the Metropolitan hotel at 10 o'clock yesterday. The committee on resolutions and program being unable to report when the meeting was first called to order, the time | members for the national committee as was spent in listening to speaches. The speakers generally scored President Cleveland for his exposition to Democratic doctrine,"

It was almost to'clock when the committee on resolutions filed into the conference room, and Senator Daniel was recognized to make the report of the committer's proceedings. This was divided into two sections, one consisting of an address to the Demograts, and the other a plan of organization. He said the address in most respects was the same as that adopted by the Democrats of Texas, Missouti and Mississippi. The address was read by Governor Stone, of Missouri,

The address disclaims speaking with party authority, the assemblage being a voluntary one, but strongly represents the opinion of the conference that the party should declare for free coinage of silver. The address concludes as follows:

Duty to the people requires that the party of the people continue the battle for bimetallism until its efforts are crowned with success; therefore be it. Resolved, that the Democratic party in national convention assembled should denand the free and unlimited coinage of Aver and gold into primary or redempon money at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the action or approval of any other nation.

Resolved, that it should declare its irreocable opposition to the substitution for money metal of a panic breeding, corration credit currency, based on a sindo metal, the supply of which is so limed that it can be cornered at any time by few banking institutions in Europe and

With a view to securing the adherence and readoption of the Democratic finanial policy above set forth by the Demofratic national convention to be assembled n 1895, and of the nomination of a caudiate for the presidency well known to be n hearty sympathy therewith, we hereby ledge our mutual co-operation and urgntly recommend to our Democratic frethren in all the states to at once begin ad vigorously and systematically proseate the work of a thorough organization. Believing that a large majority of the emocratic votors of the United States re in harmony with the sentiments exessed in the foregoing address, and nowing that a full and free expression of eir views can only be ascertained and ade effective through proper organized forts, we recommend the following as a an for such organization:

First--There shall be a national comlittee of Dunocrats who are in favor of oth silver and gold as the money of the onstitution, which shall be composed of e Democrat from each state and terriry and the District of Columbia, and e executive committee hereinafter pro-

Second-That until otherwise ordered the national committee, Senators Isham | The girl recovered under treatment.

C Harris of Tennessee, James R. Jones of Arkansas and David Tarple of Indiana, and Hons. W. J. Stone of Missouri, W.H. Hinrichsen of Uninois and Casey Young of Tennessee be the excutive committee, and shall have full power and authority to appoint a national committee.

The report of the committee was adopted without opposition, and after listening to a few brief speeches the conference adjourned sine dia.

Senator Daniel made the last speech of the meeting. He said: "I will only say that I am a Democrat, and being a Democrat, I could not help being for solid. honest and ancient gold and silver money of the Democratic party. The party of the people must stand for the money of the people. Whom God bath joined together plutocracy shall not put asunder

The executive committee held a meeting immediately after the conference closed, but adjourned without selecting authorized by the conference. It was announced to be the purpose of the commitwe to organize the national committee at the earliest practicable date, but it was thought best to defer action until suggestions could be received from states which were not represented at the conference.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 16 -The sensational murder case at Brandon has had a sensational termination. The grand jury indicted T. Dabney Marshall, Harry Coleman and R. T. Fox for the murder of R. T. Denkins, at the Brandon depot, last Friday morning. They knew the halter was well around their necks, and agreed to plead guilty with the understanding that they be sentenced to the penitentiary for life, which was done. Marshall withdrew from the candidacy for state senator on Wednesday, in anticipation of action by the Democratic committee for the removal of his name from the ticket.

Imprisonment. TAMPA, Fla., Aug. 16.—Passengers just arrived from Cuba report that on last Wednesday an insurgent band under Ma-tagas encountered a band of Spanish guerrillas near Colon. Eighty-five of the latter were killed, while the insurgent loss was seven killed and thirty-two wounded. Eulogio Lobalto has appeared near Cocodrilos with a band of 250, all well armed with Winchesters and machetes. Last Sunday the train bearing a large detach-ment of Havana volunteers to the Santa Clara district was destroyed by dynamite at the Bolondron railway bridge. Very few volunteers escaped death. The explosion was terrific.

The trial of Juan Gaberto Gomez occurred Monday. He defended himself and was sentenced to twelve years imprisonment at Couta, the Spanish prison in northern Africa. Lopez Coloma, the Matanzas chief, who was followed to the field by his affianced, received the same sentence. Ignacio Lazaga, Agapito Echevarria, Pedro Villamie and Eladio Arjola. charged as being custodians of insurgent arms and ammunitions, were sentenced for twenty years.

Campos has ordered troops to dress in blue checked goods to distinguish themselves from the insurgents, it having been discovered that the Spaniards occasionally kill one another through mistake. Hospitals are being constructed wherever Spanish troops are stationed to care for yellow fever and wounded patients.

THE CASE AGAINST HOLMES.

Efforts to Remove the Accused Man to Chicago for Trial.

PHILADELPHIA, Ang. 16—Attorney W. A. Capps, the Fort Worth attorney, who is here in the interest of the heirs of the Williams estate, had a long conference with District Attorney Graham which may completely change the course the local authorities intended to pursue in the prosecution of H. H. Mudgett, allas Holmes, the supposed murderer of the two Williams girls.

Attorney Capps is convinced that Minmig and Nannie Williams came to their death at the hands of Holmes in Chicago. He believes he has sufficient evidence to show that Holmes killed the girls for their money. He is anxious that Holmes be brought to trial on the charge of murder-ing them, and to this end he will use offorts with the district attorney. As is well known, District Attorney Graham is anxlous that Holmes be tried in that locality where there will be the least doubt of his conviction on a capital charge.

The detectives on the case are cencentrating all their energies in Chicago. Attorney Capps believes that Holmes can be convicted there. So do Detective Goyer and the Fidelity insurance inspectors.

It is likely that before snow falls Holmes will have cleared the dust of Moyamensing prison from his feet to take up his quarters in jail in Chicago, there to await trial for his alleged bloodthirsty deeds.

TEN PERSONS SERIOUSLY INJURED.

A Train on the Caunden and Atlantic Road, of the Pennsylvania system, Crashes Into a Car Containing Colored Sunday School Excursionists.

CAMBEN, N. J., Ang. 16—One person was killed and a score of others more or less seriously injured in a rear end collision on the Camden and Atlantic railroad, in the southern part of this city, last night. The Atlantic City accommodation train crashed into the rear car of apexcursion train from Lakeside, at Liberty Park station. Immediately after the collision the rear car of the excursion train caught fire and was completely destroyed. The car was ignited by oil from the lamps of the car.

Marshall Johnson, the 6-year-old son of Rev. Marshall Johnson, pastor of the African Union Methodist Episcopus church of this city, was burned to death and the following are the more seriously injured:

Maggie Cannon, aged 12 years, Camden, incised wound of breast and legs burned: Daisy Naben. 9 years, Philadelphia, sprained ankle; John Wilson, 49 years, Camden, badly shocked and burned on the fare and hands; Lucy Buckman, 25 years. West Philadelphia, shoulder fractured; Matilda Quash, Garretsford, Pa., ankle sprained; Carrie Quash, 29 years, Garrets-ford, hip injured by jumping from car window; Mrs. Marshall Johnson, wife of the poster, injured on back and hips; Mrs. Lizzie Watts, Camden, leg injured; Mrs. Mary Jane Grovers, West Philadelphia, injured about the boly; James Grovers, West Philadelphia, injured about head sud body.

The train was in charge of Conductor J. J. Kay, and was the first section of fifteen cars which left Lakeside Park at 7:05 p.m. having on board the parents and scholars of fourteen colored Sabbath schools from Camdon. Philadelphia and several counties in Pennsylvania. It had stopped at the station to let off passengers from South Coundon. The headlight of the Atlantic City train was seen as it remaded the curve at City Line, and a particleusued. A rush was made for the doors and windows, and children were thrown from the car to the platform, while others jumped from the windows.

Mrs. Johnson selwed her box's hand and started for the door, but in the crush of struggling humanity he was wrenched from her trasp and trampled upon by the exerted passengers. The crash then followed, and in a mamont the car was ablaze. An alarm was sent to the Camden fire department, and the engines quickly responding, the flames were quickly sublued. Young Johnson's body was afterward found under the car, burned to a crisp. It had fallen through when the floor gave way.

The Atlantic City train was in charge of Conductor William Butler, Engineer Charles Glendinning and Fireman Samuel Hinchman. The forward part of the engine was stove in, the smokestack broken and the pilot knocked off. The men declare that they did not know of the presence of the excursion train at the station until after having rounded the curve, and it was then too late to avert the accident, although the lever was reversed, the alrhrakes applied, and every effort made to prevent a collision.

A. F. Johnson, the operator at the station, asserts that his signals were correct, and Engineer Butler claims that so were his when he left Collingswood, the first station beyond Liberty Park.

CAMBRIDGE, Md., Aug. 16.—The Republican convention which assembled here yesterday nominated the following ticket by acciamation: For governor, Lloyd Lowndes of Cumberland; attorney general, Henry M. Clabaugh of Baltimore; comptroller, Robert P. Graham of Wicomico county. The strength of the Lowndes element was shown early in the proceedings by the choice of John C. Rose for temporary chairman. This was soon followed by the formal withdrawal of the name of William T. Malster, who had made a spirited canvass for the gubernatorial nomination. Lowndes' nomination was then made by a standing vote, amid much enthusiasm. The other candidates were nominated with little opposition. Hon. Lloyd Lowndes, the Republican nominee for governor, is extensively interested in the commercial affairs of Maryland. He was educated as a lawyer, but took up mercantile pursuits and is now at the head of a number of banks, mining companies, etc., at Baitimore and Cumberland. He served in the Forty-third congress as a strair supporter of the Grant administration. While in congress he voted against the civil rights bill on the ground that it was unconstitutional. ARMENIAN OUTRAGES.

Cruel Treatment of American Citizens in Marsovan.

OUR MINISTER ACTS PROMPTLY.

Demands the Release of Americans Unjustly Accused and Prompt Trial of Those Who Are Revolutionists—The Latter Threaten Objectionable Persons.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.-The department of state has just received from Minister Terrell a report which throws some light on the report telegraphed from Constantinople a few days ago, saying that American citizens had been injured at Marsovan. From Minister Terrell's report it appears that on July 1 an Armenian named Garabed was assassinated at Marsovan, close to the church door, as he was going to attend early service. He was the chief man of the Protestant community and chairman of the council of thirty, who are responsible for the peace of the city. It was alleged that he had given the government information in regard to the revolutionists.

Consul Jewett, in reporting this case July 13 to Consul General Short, at Constantinople, says that numerous Armenians were arrested, as it was said there was little doubt Garabed was murdered by them. Among those arrested was a naturalized American citizen, who had been a student at the American college at Marsovan, but who, as Mr. Jewett was informed, had been dropped from the roll some months ago.

Minister Terrell was promptly informed concerning the assassination and the imprisonments which followed it, and took immediate steps to insure fair treatment of the naturalized citizens, and called upon Mr. Jewett for any trustworthy information he might have regarding the danger to the missionary teachers at Marsovan from Armenian revolutionists. He informed Mr. Jewett that though Turkey has a right to expel undesirable classes of people from her territory, she has no right to treat the acquired American citizenship of any of them as an offense, and to imprison them for that cause, nor to imprison them on mere suspician. He instructed him in such cases promptly to demand their release, and that if any of them are arrested while engaged in armed resistance to the government to demand a fair

Mr. Terrell's report of the troubles at Marsovan is based upon a verbal statement of Mr. Dwight, a leading American missionary at Constantinople, and is as follows:

"More than a year ago sixteen persons at Morsavan received written notices that they would be killed unless they co-operated with the Armenian revolutionists. President Trucy and Professor Briggs, of Marsovan college, were two of these. They had incurred the ill will of the revo-Intionists by refusing to receive in the college the sons of certain men suspected of being revolutionists. Garabed, who was assassinated, was another of the sixteen who received notice, and Mr. Dwight has been informed that still another has been assassinated. A Turkish guard was furnished at the request of Mr. Terril to protect the American families from the assassins. Mr. Dwight considers that guard sufficient to protect the missionaries at the college, and Mr. Terrell has not applied for an additional force. "The local governor informed the Armenians, after the killing, that he intended to arrest all suspected persons and imprison them until they revealed the names of the guilty ones; that their object was to provoke Turkish vengeance in order to becure the sympathy and intervention of Christian Europe, but that they would not succeed, as he had caused to be preached in the mosques for months that such was their object, and that any Turk who killed a Christian would be the worst enemy of

Mr. Terrell adds that the revolutionists of Marsovan bad organized, and marked the American professors long before the Sassoun atrocities.

To Suppress the Santa Cruz Indians.

MERIDA, Yucatan, Aug. 16.-There is great enthusiasm here over the intention of President Diaz, as announced from the City of Mexico, to occupy Baclar with a strong force of troops. The Santa Cruz Indians are filled with dismay, because they now realize that their depredations are to be severely punished. Many of those Indians are fleeing to Belize to accept British hospitality among the people who for many years have been furnishing them arms and ammunition. It is not believed that the leaders of the Indians can bring over 600 men into the field against the Mex-

SUFFER STAGE FRIGHT WHEN FAC-ING A DIFFICULT OPERATION.

Two Ways In Which It Affects Them-A Young Surgeon's First Amputation. Threaded a Needle to Steady His Nerves. Operating on a Friend.

"Is there such a thing as stage fright among surgeous?" a successful New York surgeon was asked. Though the term stage fright with reference to surgery was perhaps a misnomer, the surgeon understood the question.

"Oh, yes, indeed, there is such a thing as stage fright among surgeons," he replied. "There are two kinds of stage fright, or, rather, there are two different temperaments among dectors, and the fright, although in itself perhaps the same, has a different seeming, affected as it is by the material through which it passes. The first is the surgeon who is unxious to perform the operation, sees no difficulties in the way and nothing but a successful termination. His rest is not disturbed by reflections upon complications which may arise. Everything is lovely until the patient is before him. Then his hand begins to shake if he meets with difficulties which he had not counted upon; his nervousness increases; he hurries, perhaps with a fatal result. In the case of this man he grows worse as he grows older, and in old age he goes all to pieces.

"There is another temperament of this order. From the time this surgeon recognizes that an operation is necessary there pass through his mind all the complications which could possibly come up, and he wonders if there are not mere which he has not thought of. He is by no means sauguine of a happy result. He fears this and that and the other thing. As the hour approaches he dreads to commence his work more and more. But when he is before the subject his nervousness leaves him. He commences intelligently, reflecting upon what might arise. He does not hurry or get excited, but he is intensely interested, wholly abscribed by what he is doing. I remember witnessing an operation by one of the most celebrated surgeons I ever knew. It was a most difficult operation, and the amphitheater was filled with doctors who had come to see it performed. A few moments before the surgeon was to commence he was presented by a friend to two doctors who had come from a distance to see him operate. He bowed very polite-that he commenced operating. "The operation was of considerable length, and when it was finished the two gentlemen to whom the surgeon had been presented approached to speak a congratulatory word or two. As he did not appear to recognize them, his friend presented them again. He expressed his pleasure at meeting them without the slightest recollection that he had met them.

ly and spoke a few words. Shortly after

"Do you recall the first operation you ever performed yourself?"

"Indeed I remember it very well. I was in a hospital where there were 3,500 beds and 33 surgeons in charge. I was one of the young assistant surgeons. If an operation was necessary in any of the wards, it was our duty to report it to the surgeon in charge, who then performed the operation if he chose. I reported to my surgeon the necessity of an amputation of a great toe. The surgeon came and looked at the man and concurred with my opinion that an amputation was necessary. I was directed to get everything ready for the operation. Then,' said the surgeon, 'I will come and operate if I can. If not, you go on and perform the operation your-

"I told my young associates of the order, and they said: Well, you go on and get ready, but he won't come. You will have to do the operation yourself.' And that was the way it turned out. The operation was to be at 2 o'clock. All the might before I was rehearing what I intended to do in my mind and dreaming of it in my sleep. The next day I could not eat my luncheon. My hands and feet were cold. When it came time to commence the operation, I could only steady my nerves by threading needles. I said: 'Give me the needles to thread. I am very parieular about my thread.' I took a needle and commenced poking at the eye. In a few seconds my hand obeyed my will and became as steady as I could wish. I performed the operation successfully. After that I went on performing a great many operations, but it was years before I could take a i o'eleck luncheon if I had to operate at 2 ofclock.

"From the conscientions scientific man apprehension never departs, for he knows that it is impossible to foresee all things. And then, egain, he takes in his hands a holy human life. If an actor accentuate the wreng word or halts in his lines, the worst that can come is a slight damage to his reputation. If a minister preaches heterodox doctrines, the worst that can happen to him is a trial for heresy. But if the surgeon in a dangerous operation makes but the slightest mistake it may result in death, for which there is no remedy. Many and many a time on the night previous to a serious operation have I awakened myself from an anxious, troubled sleep by performing the operation in my dreams. It is also very much more trying to a surgeon to operate on a friend than on a stranger. It is hard to tell in this case who is more to be pitied, the surgeon or the patient. I think the longer a man operates the less certain he is of the outcome of any operation. A frail little woman that one would almost say a breath of wind would blow away will survive the most painful and dangerous operation where a rough, stocky and iron built peasant woman that one would think could survive almost any possible operation will die from something which is not, as a rule, considered dangerous.' -New York Sun.

TWO ENTERTAINMENTS.

One Performance on the Stage, the Other In the Audience.

I attended a recent performance given by some amateur actors and actressesvery good they were, too—and while I enjoyed the stuge entertainment I was not unmindful of the one that was in progress directly behind me.

It was furnished by an old lady and two young ones-when I say "young ones" I don't mean children-and its beginning antedated the overture in this

"Can you read the programme, moth-

"Why, yes; but it must be wrong. Here's Aunic's name down, and it says she's a servant. I thought you said she was an actress."

"Only a servant in the play, mother." "But that seems a kind of mean thing to play. She doesn't have to do that, goodness knows!" "She has to play whatever they give her to play. She's a beginner, you

"Well. I wouldn't begin that way." "Annie" appeared presently.

She said, "Yes, my lady," and "No, your lordship," and "I will tell her ladyship that you are here," and a few more stunners of that sort very well, I

But when the French count with the pointed beard chacks her under the chin I could hear the old lady behind megetting into a fine rage.

Well, the idea of our Annie letting a man do a thing like that!"

"But, mother, that's in the play." "I don't care if it is. I suppose he'll kiss her later on! The idea! Well, he did kiss her shortly after and got a good slap in the face for his pains. The old lady almost rose in her seat. "Good, good!" she cried in a very andible voice. "I thought Annie wouldn't stand anything of that sort!" She objected to the young girl's little love affairs with the footman, however, and could hardly be kept in her chair when the two plighted their troth.

"I don't call that play acting," she said. "They were just like two servants, and I don't like it."

When the curtain dropped, they all went around to the stage door, and somebow I felt sorry for Annie, coming from the stage full of hot enthusiasm, only to receive-mentally at least-a bucket of cold water.-Polly Pry in New York Recorder.

THE SICKROOM NURSE.

Her Duties, Her Authority and Her Powers For Evil or Good.

No person has greater power for evil or for good than has the nurse in the sickroom. Her actual authority is second to that of the physician, but her opportunities for exercising it are almost unlimited. If a physician in a country town wishes to secure a trained nurse, he should telegraph or write to the nurses directory, to some hospital or physician whom he knows, in the nearest adjacent city, staring for what sort of a case he will require a nurse, what he will pay and when he will require her. Such a message should secure for him almost immediately whatever service he requires.

The traits of character which make the ideal nurse are patience, obedience, tact and good sense and temper. The nurse's costume should consist of a cambric or scersnelter gown, with white cap, enfis and apron. Woolen gowns should never be permitted in a sickroom. Her authority is absolute after the physician's. She must obey his instruction; to the letter, even if they are against her judgment. She has no discretion in the matter.

But the patient and the patient's family must obey her. She must never be allowed to disobey the physician's crders, and the first symptom of any such behavior should be reported immediately to the physician. All his instructions with reference to treatment, diet and care should be followed faithfully. The fact that her patient is a man should make no difference in her behavior in the sickroom. He is a patient, not a man, and she a nurse, not a woman. Whenever a nur e disobeys a physician's orders or behaves in any manner which renders her dismassal advisable, the family or the patient should request the doctor to discharge her at once and to supply her substitute. A word from him is sufficient to insure her departure.-Ladies' Home Journal.

which broke through. -The proceeds of the M. E. Church

It is a simple arrangement, clinching the nails after they have been driven. It is universally pronounced far superior to any thing yet in use. He intends placing it on the market soon.

-The Y. P. S. C. E. went on an excursion via canal, Wednesday, to Ouddebackville.

-Among recent contributions to Miss Olcott's museum is a combined teapot and stove, designed to burn whale oil, and made entirely of china. It is a very rare relic indeed. Perhaps its value as such is enhanced by the fact that it was part of the collection of Oliver . Holden, author of the favorite old hymn, "Coronation," who was born in Shirley, Mass., 1762, and died in 1792. As the keepsake was in his collection as a relic during his life it is safe to assume that is at least 200 years old.

AN ILLINOIS MYSTERY.

Probable Murder of a Colored Woman and Her Infant Child.

Modern His . Ang. 15 - What seems to bea as the murder has thrown the little village of Gordova, twenty miles up the river, into a rever of excitement. On Sunday a boatman on the river discovered the body of a colored woman and towed it istore. She was apparently 28 years old and was thought to be a cook or chambermeld on one of the river boats. Nothing was found on her person to reveal her identity, barring a spoon, excepting a photograph of a colored man recognized as Charles Jones, cook of the steamer Sidney. The steamer's officers reported a chambermaid missing. Later a farmer's wife near Cordova recognized the body as that of a woman who had previously called in company with a colored man and infant, and had been given food, and also identified the 5000n as one she had given the child at the same time. On Tuesday night a bundle of child's clothing was found partly buried in the ground near the place where the woman's body was discovered. Shortly after a mound of sand was opened, and five inches below the surface was found the body of a male child (colored). In months old, with its head crushed and arms and leg broken, apparently stamped to death in the sand and hastily buried. A colored man, supposed to be the one seen with the woman, bought a ticket at Cordova for Chicago. He displayed several $30 gold pieces. Detectives are doing everything possible to solve the mystery.

More West Virginia Miners on Strike. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 16 .- All the miners of Loup Creek, with the exception of those at Glen Jean, struck yesterday. About 860 are out. Those employed at Glen Jean, about 200, refuse to quit, and almost an equal number at McDonald's say they will go in again unless the Glen Jean men quit. It is probable that the matter will be settled. New river operators have notified their men they must submit to a reduction of from forty to thirty cents for mining if the Loup Creek strike is unsuccessful. Loup Creek operators pay higher wages than those of New River, but the coal of the former can be mined much cheaper and has been supplanting the latter in the market.

After Illegal Fishermen.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 16.-State Game and Fish Warden Buntaine, of Dayton, swooped down on the Lake Erie fishermen again yesterday. Eighty nets were seized, but the owners were on the spot, and a straggle ensued, which resulted in the recovery of a number of nets. The others were confidented by the warden. This seizure, following upon the heels of the arrest of a number of the fishermen earlier in the day, caused much excitement, and there is promise of a bitter legal struggle before matters are adjusted.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 16, 1895,

The name of Justice Charles F. Brown, of Newburgh, is mentioned in some of the New York papers in connection with the vacancy on the bench of the United States Supreme Court. Judge Brown is one of New York's ablest jurists and has proved himself broad enough, able enough and learned enough to be worthy of a place in the nation's highest court.

Internal revenue statistics show that 80,116,374 gallons of whiskey were made in the United States during the fiscal year ending June 39th over 9,000,000 gallons less than last year. The withdrawals from bond were, however, so small that the stock increased. The whiskey now in bond amounts to 138,351,894 gallons, so that there is no danger of a drought.

The conference of silver Democrats in Wasnington is believed to have weakened rather than strengthened the cause of free coinage. The small attendance and lack of prominence of those who did attend discredited the conference even in the eyes of its members, and though some of the speeches were strong enough, the MOTHER AND DAUCHIERS BURNED TO resolutions are very mild, merely declaring that the Democratic National Convention "should demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold into primary or redemption last night, and she and her two money at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the action of any other nation."

Money is being poured out like water in the fight between Senator Quay and the Hastings-Martin combice for the control of the Pennsylvania State Convention. In Montgomery county alone it is said that over $100,000 was spent to secure the delegates, delegates to the County Convention having been paid as high as $2,000 for their votes. When it comes to boodling, Quay knows more in a minute than his enemies do in a week, and the turn that the fight has recently taken in Quay's favor is probably due to the fact that the choice of delegates in most of the counties has been put on a purely financial basis.

A most interesting story of hypnotic suggestion comes from Richfield Springs. Starr Kellar, of that village, escorted to a ball at the Earlington Hotel, last night, a young woman whose rare beauty attracted universal attention. She was beautifully attired and many looked upon her with admiration as she danced easily and gracefully. A worned look came over her escort's face when the band struck up "Ben Bolt," set to waltz time, but in the cent. in wages. dance she was conspicuous for her grace and abandon. When the music fell into a minor key and the strains of "Au Claire de la Lune" echoed plaintively down the hall, the unknown guest uttered a piercing shriek and fell at full length on the ball room floor. A physician diagonized the case as cetalepsy. Inquiry developed the fact that the girl is the daughter of Joshua Spates, an East Springfield farmer, and had been persuaded to come to the ball by a sum mer guest who made her acquaintance while he was on a fishing excursion. On her arrival in Richüeld he introduced her to Kellar, who hypnotized her and borlowed for her the finery in which she was dressed. The girl had never before worn evening dress, had never been to a ball had never waitzed in her life and had never read Trilby. Much indignation was expres ed when the facts were known and criminal proceed. ings again-t the parties who hypnotized the girl a e threatened

OBITUARY.

Mariamne Bull Cozzens.

As was briefly mentioned, yesterday, Mrs. Mariamne B. Cozzens died at 1 30 o'clock p. m., at the Old Ladies' Home.

Mrs. Cozzens was one of twelve children of Moses Bull, and was born near Scotchtown, Oct 3, 1804, and was therefore in her ninety-first year.

She was married when a young woman to Daniel Cozzens and they removed to South Carolina, where they lived until the death of her hushand, when she returned to Scotontown, and resided with her father untii bis death, when she came to Middletown and resided here until about five years ago, when, at the earnest sollcitation of her son, Daniel Cozzens, she went to Jersey City to live with him. He died about four years ago, and having no near relatives in a position to care for her, she came to the Home in this city where relatives who were interested in her saw to it that she received every attention, and the last years of her long life were made as comfortable as was possible. This fact she appreciated and often spoke to guest of her friend, Miss Clara Law- friends in high praise of this institu-

Mrs. Cozzens was the mother of three children, all of whom are dead. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Julia McWilliams, who resides on Mulberry street in this city, but who is now lying ill at the residence of Jesse Bull, near Mud Mills, where she was visiting. Mrs. McWilliams was the youngest of the family, and is now over eighty years old.

Mrs. Cozzens united with the Scotchtown Presbyterian Church in early life, and for many years past has been a member of the First Presbyterian Church, in this city. She was a woman of more than oldinary intelligence and always commanded the respect and esteem of her acquaintances. She was well known to most all of the older residents of this locality.

The funeral will take place at the Home on South street at 10 a. m , tomorrow. Interment in Hillside.

Nervous debility is a common complaint, especially among women. The best medical treatment for this disorder is a persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparills to cleanse and invigorate the blood. This being Colic Cholera Cure promptly, you It can always be depended upon; its

IS IT A VETO BY THE MAYOR?

Sealed Com nunication from the Mayor in the City Clerk's Hands-Belleved to Be a Veto of the East Main Street Pay. ing Resolution-The Contract Not Signed-Why It Was Necessary to Help the Council Out.

A sealed communication from the Mayor to the Common Council is in the hands of Oity Clerk Hamilton and will be opened at the adjourned meeting of the Council, Monday evening. It is believed that the Major has come to the rescue of the Conneil and helped it out of the mess into which it got by its hasty, ill-advised and unbusiness like action in awarding the contract for the East Main street paving, by returning. without his approval, the resolution awarding the contract to Mr. Harrington. Certain it is that the Mayor has left town to be gone for several days without signing the contract with Harrington, and it is argued that if he intended to approve of the award he would have signed the contract, that preparations for the job might be made by the contractor. It is an open georet that the past ten days have not been days of pleasantness for the Republican bosses of this town. They have been hearing from the people, who, irrespective of party, want to know why the pecition of property owners for granite blocks was not even read?

Why the contract was not awarded to the lowest bidder? Why the Catskill bricks, which have never been tested, were selected in preference to bricks whose strength and durability have been proven by years

None of these questions have been satisfactorily answered. They cannot be.

It has also dawned on the Republican bosses that the resolution ordering the Traction Company to pave between and alongside its tracks isn't just the thing. If the company does not see fit to comply with the order, and the Council has been unofficially notified that the company doesn't propose to do any paving this year, part of the street will be paved and part left unpaved, and the Council, realizing this, has been hunting a way to fix up this lapse.

In view of all these circumstances it is probable that the Mayor has withheld his approval of the Council's paving resolution and contract award, so as to give the Aldermen a chance to start over again and avoid the follies and blunders which disgrace its previous action.

A Division of Sentiment as to McComb -Well Spoken of in Montgomery, His Former Home.

The excitement at Summitville, occasioned by the shooting of the French bear trainer, is subsiding, and much sympathy is expressed for McCombin his unenviable position by his friends, while others declare hat fu'l punishment should be meted out to him. The bears are still at Summitville in charge of one of the Frenchmen and appear to be enjoying their rest. The wounded mar, Balent, was taken to a hospital in New York by his friends. An Argus reporter met a gentleman, yesterday, who resides near Montgomery and who has known McComb all his life. He described him as an impulsive man when in his cups, and one who scarcely ever reckoned upon the consequences of his acts. When sober, however, a better man or workmen would be hard to find. Two grown sons are employed by farmers near Montgom-

SEEING IS BELIEVING.

What a Middletown Yan,a Disinterested and Dispassionate Observer, Saw in Fall River. Mr. John J. Hogan, who, for several days, has been at Fall River, Mass., on business for the Hogan Boiler Company, returned to this city, last evening. Mr. Hogan, while at Fall River, interviewed the managers of all the sheeting and print cloth mills of that renowned city of spindles and looms, and from them he learned that never before have they been so overrun with orders as at present, and they frankly admit their great surprise at this, to them, most unexpected turn of affairs under the new tariff, saying that it must be the fact that this great rush of business is to be partially explained by the presence of foreign orders in this market.

Mr. Hogan says nearly every mill in Fall R ver is being enlarged and upon all sides there are most impressive evidences of a prosperous present and greatest confidence in a prosperous future.

A Flag For Middletowo's Common Council.

New York's Aldermen have adopted a flag, and Middletown's Common Council, if it wants to be up to date, ought to make haste to do likewise. There would be no trouble in selecting an appropriate design. A black body blazoned with Catakill shale paving brick, grouped about Dave Miller's hay wagon, would be unique and emblamatic.

THE GRASSHOPPERS ARE HERE.

Many of Them on the Streets and in Business Places.

The grasshoppers bave come to town. There are not many of them on the lawns, but they are hopping about the streets in goodly numbers and have invaded stores and business offices, They are noticeably more numerous, to-day, than they were yesterday, and it is possible that they will continue to increase and muitiply until tales can be written of Middletown's grasshopper plague that will rival in wildness and wooliness those told of Sulivan county grasspobbeis.

THOUGHT IT WAS EASY.

Hiram Didn't Want Any One Else to Paper That Room.

"Hire a man to paper that little room! Well, I guess not. I can paper that myself." That is what Hiram Wakely teld his wife. He was a suburbanite, and the next Saturday when he had an afternoon from the office he came home with his arms filled with rolls of paper.

"Now you make the paste," he said to his wife.

She began to brew a sticky concection over the gasoline stove, and by the time Hiram had the paper cut for the walls she announced that the paste was ready. Into the chamber which was to be treated to the coar of paper the head of the household had moved the kitchen table to be used as a platform. A whitewash brush was on hand to spread the paste. One strip was dampened with the liquid which came from the kitchen, and with a flourish Mr. Wakely mounted the table and started the paper business by fastening the top of the strip to the ceiling in the corner. When he had pressed the fibers into the plaster half way to the floor, he sprang down from his perch and ran his brush down to the basebeard.

"Now, that is the way to do it. It's easy." He was stooping as he spoke. When he straightened up, the strip of paper left the wail and wrapped itself about his body like the feelers of an octopus. Mrs. Wakely giggled and then broke into a rippling laugh as her husband clutched at his back to get out of the tangle. "It's the paste. Properly made paste would not act like that," he said.

The bucket of paste was emptied into the sewer, and another batch was made under the direction of Mr. Wakely. This stuck better, and by dint of hard work "It doesn't matter if all the figures do not match." Mr. Wakely said as he surveved his week with much satisfaction. It will be easier to get the ceiling done. To reach the ceiling it was necessary to put a chair on the table. On this eleva-tion Mr. Wakely perched while Mrs. Wakely held the lamp, for it was dark by this time. One strip went across without trouble The next had a tendency to wrinkle and sag down a first or two from the wash. Inun effort to set in straightened out Mr. Wakely stepped on the edge of the chair. Is tipped from the table. The colling paper floated down life a pail and settled over the wreck. Mr Wakely was on the floor. The paper was on Mr. Wakely. The chair was on the paper, and the bucket of paste was over everything. In her tright Mrs. Wakely hed dropped the lamp, and there was total darkings in the room. Mr. Wakely clawed the paper off his face and then wiped the paste out of his eyes. When Mrs. Wakely ventured back to see if the house had caught fire, she found her husband mattering to himself and pitching the remaining rolls of paper out of the

It was expected that much important business would come before the Council. Among other things, action on the Traction Company's request for a franchise through Bonnell and Stanton streets; the East Main street paving matter and the Highland avenue extension.

The extension of the electric road to the State Hospital is dependent upon action of Council on the application and any delay in Council is a delay in the building of the road.

The East Main street matter is in such a muddle that if it is not straightened out soon the street can not be paved this year.

The Highland avecue extension was to be attended to "after hayin" and as Mr. Miller has finished haying he may take it into his head to do something, and may do just what people don't want him to do-change the line of the atreet and Council should take action to forestall him. These are all important matters and It is the duty of Council to see that there is a quorum, Monday evening, even if there should be a clam bake or similar attraction somewhere.

THE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING.

The Plans and Estimates Are in the Hands of the Building Committee.

The Building Committee of the Board of Education has received Sourteen separate plans, specifica tions and estimates of cost of the proposed new high school building to be erected on the site of the old Walikiil Acadamy. It is believed these are all that will be submitted, although others may arrive later committee. The limit of the cost placed by the committee was $55,000, and, of course, the architects have tried to keep within that hmit, but if the ordinary mertal can gurss a little bit, some of the plans, it followed, would involve a cost of several thousand dollars more, but as an oinament to the city, might be worth the addi tional cost. It is probable that at the adjourned meeting of the Board, on Thursday evening, several of the architects will be present to advocate their

THE CONDUCTORS' CLAMBAKE.

While Aldermen Eat Clams the Public | The Largest Attendance in Years-Over 5,000 Meal Tickets sold.

The Conductors' clambake was even a greater success in point of attendance than the estimates made yesterday, when it was thought 1,800 people would be carried over the O and W. road, for it is now known that about 2,400 persons or nearly double the number of last year were carried to the Manor on trains, and the total attendance did not fall short of 3,500. Of this number Middletown contributed 800 at least. The people went there to eat too, for over 5,000 meal tickets were sold during the day and evening.

The evening bake was well patronized and there are those who ate of both, who say it was even better than the one at noon.

The athletic contests took place in the afternoon and created considerable amusement for the crowd, The 100-yard running race was run in 111/2 seconds, and was won by a young man named Williams, from Sidney. McMullen, of Walten, was second. Michael Huiley, of this city, won the sack race.

Putting the shot was won by John Pohlman, of this city, who threw the 16-pound weight thirty feet. Murray Kay, of this city, was second with a throw of 29 feet, 6 inches.

The tub race was won by two Middietown lads after a series of upsets. All of the contestants were in the water most of the time.

The crowd did not take kindly to the greased pole, and no one was found with nerve enough to try to climb it.

Several gambling devices were in full operation, and the nickle-in-theslot machines did a paying business. A wheel with a revolving arrow had fourteen numbers upon it. Ten cents a chance was charged, and the man who had placed that sum on a number and won was given the choice of a five-cent piece of jewelry or a dollar. Of course he took the dollar, and as there were fourteen chances, the proprietors cleared forty cents every turn of the wheel.

Several fights occurred during the day, and many received cuts and biulses in the various scraps. Chas. Guy, a colored man from this city, received a terrific beating at the hands of two men, whom he had annoyed more or less all morning.

The last train for this city arrived at 1 o'clock, this morning. Every body who attended has only good words for Jack Sherwood, who managed the bake, for the conductors, who (looked so carefully after the welfare of their guests, and the O, and W. company for its admirable train service.

The conductors ought to realize a nice sum from the bake; they certainly deserve it.
